Project Description

Purpose/Use of Funds

Proposal to Provide a Financial Education and Entrepreneurship Education Program for Veterans - The goal of this program is to help veterans become more aware and educated on how to better manage their money, more effectively utilize credit, and to be better able to address issues that will negatively impact their financial situation. This program will also offer the opportunity for some veterans to pursue starting their own business to help them determine the feasibility of their business plan, the marketability of their idea, and if they have the skills and resources necessary to start-up the business. While the majority of clients in the program will be veterans and they will be given primary consideration, it will not be restricted just to veterans, as non-veterans who inquire about the program and are interested will be allowed to participate if the program has not already reached its capacity.

Intended Recipient of Funds

Jane Addams Hull House
